

FINANCE AND TRAFFIC.

Weekly Review of Finance.

Monetary Matters Quiet Generally.

Local Securities Moderately Active.

Quies New York Stock Market, Closing Strong.

MONDAY EVENING, September 19, 1891.
Financial matters throughout the past week have been unusually quiet. The general movement of the market has been toward a decline, but with some recovery in the latter part of the week. The New York stock market has been quiet, with a slight decline in the closing. The gold market has been active, with a decline in the price of gold. The silver market has been quiet, with a slight decline in the price of silver. The foreign exchange market has been active, with a decline in the price of foreign exchange. The bond market has been quiet, with a slight decline in the price of bonds. The commodity market has been active, with a decline in the price of commodities. The market for cotton has been active, with a decline in the price of cotton. The market for wheat has been active, with a decline in the price of wheat. The market for corn has been active, with a decline in the price of corn. The market for soybeans has been active, with a decline in the price of soybeans. The market for hogs has been active, with a decline in the price of hogs. The market for cattle has been active, with a decline in the price of cattle. The market for sheep has been active, with a decline in the price of sheep. The market for poultry has been active, with a decline in the price of poultry. The market for eggs has been active, with a decline in the price of eggs. The market for butter has been active, with a decline in the price of butter. The market for cheese has been active, with a decline in the price of cheese. The market for lard has been active, with a decline in the price of lard. The market for tallow has been active, with a decline in the price of tallow. The market for oil has been active, with a decline in the price of oil. The market for sugar has been active, with a decline in the price of sugar. The market for coffee has been active, with a decline in the price of coffee. The market for tea has been active, with a decline in the price of tea. The market for spices has been active, with a decline in the price of spices. The market for fruits has been active, with a decline in the price of fruits. The market for vegetables has been active, with a decline in the price of vegetables. The market for flowers has been active, with a decline in the price of flowers. The market for other goods has been active, with a decline in the price of other goods.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET, Closing Strong.
The New York stock market has been quiet, with a slight decline in the closing. The market for cotton has been active, with a decline in the price of cotton. The market for wheat has been active, with a decline in the price of wheat. The market for corn has been active, with a decline in the price of corn. The market for soybeans has been active, with a decline in the price of soybeans. The market for hogs has been active, with a decline in the price of hogs. The market for cattle has been active, with a decline in the price of cattle. The market for sheep has been active, with a decline in the price of sheep. The market for poultry has been active, with a decline in the price of poultry. The market for eggs has been active, with a decline in the price of eggs. The market for butter has been active, with a decline in the price of butter. The market for cheese has been active, with a decline in the price of cheese. The market for lard has been active, with a decline in the price of lard. The market for tallow has been active, with a decline in the price of tallow. The market for oil has been active, with a decline in the price of oil. The market for sugar has been active, with a decline in the price of sugar. The market for coffee has been active, with a decline in the price of coffee. The market for tea has been active, with a decline in the price of tea. The market for spices has been active, with a decline in the price of spices. The market for fruits has been active, with a decline in the price of fruits. The market for vegetables has been active, with a decline in the price of vegetables. The market for flowers has been active, with a decline in the price of flowers. The market for other goods has been active, with a decline in the price of other goods.

COTTON FUTURES.

WM. S. THORNTON, Commission Merchant, 1 COLLEGE BUILDING, CINCINNATI.

TRAFFIC.

Weekly Review of the Markets.

And General Business of the Day.

MONDAY EVENING, September 19, 1891.

ARTICLES.

Stocks and Bonds.

Grain and Provisions.

Commodities.

Metropolitan.

McComick & Beebe, Commission Merchants, 100 N. Main St., Cincinnati, O.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET, Closing Strong.
The New York stock market has been quiet, with a slight decline in the closing. The market for cotton has been active, with a decline in the price of cotton. The market for wheat has been active, with a decline in the price of wheat. The market for corn has been active, with a decline in the price of corn. The market for soybeans has been active, with a decline in the price of soybeans. The market for hogs has been active, with a decline in the price of hogs. The market for cattle has been active, with a decline in the price of cattle. The market for sheep has been active, with a decline in the price of sheep. The market for poultry has been active, with a decline in the price of poultry. The market for eggs has been active, with a decline in the price of eggs. The market for butter has been active, with a decline in the price of butter. The market for cheese has been active, with a decline in the price of cheese. The market for lard has been active, with a decline in the price of lard. The market for tallow has been active, with a decline in the price of tallow. The market for oil has been active, with a decline in the price of oil. The market for sugar has been active, with a decline in the price of sugar. The market for coffee has been active, with a decline in the price of coffee. The market for tea has been active, with a decline in the price of tea. The market for spices has been active, with a decline in the price of spices. The market for fruits has been active, with a decline in the price of fruits. The market for vegetables has been active, with a decline in the price of vegetables. The market for flowers has been active, with a decline in the price of flowers. The market for other goods has been active, with a decline in the price of other goods.

COTTON FUTURES.

WM. S. THORNTON, Commission Merchant, 1 COLLEGE BUILDING, CINCINNATI.

TRAFFIC.

Weekly Review of the Markets.

And General Business of the Day.

MONDAY EVENING, September 19, 1891.

ARTICLES.

Stocks and Bonds.

Grain and Provisions.

Commodities.

Metropolitan.

McComick & Beebe, Commission Merchants, 100 N. Main St., Cincinnati, O.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET, Closing Strong.
The New York stock market has been quiet, with a slight decline in the closing. The market for cotton has been active, with a decline in the price of cotton. The market for wheat has been active, with a decline in the price of wheat. The market for corn has been active, with a decline in the price of corn. The market for soybeans has been active, with a decline in the price of soybeans. The market for hogs has been active, with a decline in the price of hogs. The market for cattle has been active, with a decline in the price of cattle. The market for sheep has been active, with a decline in the price of sheep. The market for poultry has been active, with a decline in the price of poultry. The market for eggs has been active, with a decline in the price of eggs. The market for butter has been active, with a decline in the price of butter. The market for cheese has been active, with a decline in the price of cheese. The market for lard has been active, with a decline in the price of lard. The market for tallow has been active, with a decline in the price of tallow. The market for oil has been active, with a decline in the price of oil. The market for sugar has been active, with a decline in the price of sugar. The market for coffee has been active, with a decline in the price of coffee. The market for tea has been active, with a decline in the price of tea. The market for spices has been active, with a decline in the price of spices. The market for fruits has been active, with a decline in the price of fruits. The market for vegetables has been active, with a decline in the price of vegetables. The market for flowers has been active, with a decline in the price of flowers. The market for other goods has been active, with a decline in the price of other goods.

COTTON FUTURES.

WM. S. THORNTON, Commission Merchant, 1 COLLEGE BUILDING, CINCINNATI.

TRAFFIC.

Weekly Review of the Markets.

And General Business of the Day.

MONDAY EVENING, September 19, 1891.

ARTICLES.

Stocks and Bonds.

Grain and Provisions.

Commodities.

Metropolitan.

McComick & Beebe, Commission Merchants, 100 N. Main St., Cincinnati, O.

